

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURAL SCIENCES

Pesticide Science

The basic principles of pesticide science are provided: history, pest monitoring, action thresholds, alternative control tactics and innovative approaches. Insights on pesticide design, action and implementation are also provided. In depth study of both chemical, biological and biorational pesticides is the final and the major part of this course.